RELAX

EVEN WHEN YOU'RE NOT THERE.

HISCOX

AS GOOD AS OUR WORD

Chances are, you visit your holiday home to take a break from the pressures of everyday life. It stands to reason, you'll take things even easier knowing there are professionals on hand immediately, should those precious moments of relaxation turn into exasperation.

Hiscox. As good as our word

We specialise in insuring holiday homes in the UK and abroad, and have a wealth of experience in covering holiday homes in France. Our promise is that we'll make sure things get put right, no matter where you are if they go wrong. And to ensure that's a stress-free process we have a network of English-speaking claims experts on call, with local knowledge and advice if you need to make a claim for your overseas property.

Case studies

- Hail stones the size of golf balls pelted the client's pool cover at their villa, and put large holes through it. Hiscox were as good as their word, and paid quickly so they could get the problem sorted.
- When our clients arrived at their house in the south of France, they found there had been a break-in and furniture had been stolen. Hiscox paid to replace all the furniture even though the clients had been absent for the past three months.

With cover from Hiscox...

Your holiday home will benefit from elements of cover that aren't always included in other policies. These include:

- cover for accidental damages, which are usually excluded from an insurance policy (for instance: accidental breakage, spilled liquid on a carpet, a nail hammered through a water pipe when trying to hang a picture etc.)
- automatic cover when you let your property, including damage caused by tenants
- no restriction of theft cover if your property is left unoccupied
- cover for buildings that can also include terraces, swimming pools, tennis courts, outbuildings and perimeter walls
- new-for-old cover
- automatic cover for loss of rent
- €5 million euros of liability to cover any injury suffered by your visitors, tenants, staff or simply passers-by.

With you in mind, BNP Paribas International Buyers has developed an exclusive partnership with Verspieren Clientèle Privée, a French leading insurance broker, in order to offer HISCOX insurance cover adapted to your individual needs. French Holiday Home Insurance is a home insurance reserved for non-resident clients.

- The only offer of this type in France, managed in English by French specialists, from policy subscription to claims management.
